Request for Instructor Guide

Dear Colleague:

The instructor guide, PowerPoint slides and test bank are copyright 2015 by David Diamantes. You are free to use the text and related materials, diagrams, test bank questions and power points from Fire Prevention Inspection and Code Enforcement, 4th edition, (ISBN 978-1508481171) in the classroom or within the BlackBoard Learn - Learning Management System for online college courses, or similar program at no cost provided:

- The materials are provided through a password protected site, only accessible to registered students who have purchased the book or ebook, and the instructor.
- The materials are not sold or re-sold without prior authorization.

Please email this completed form to davediamantes@gmail.com. I will email a link to download the IG and test bank.

The text can be purchased through Amazon, Create Space and through Ingram. The e-book is only available on Amazon.com. Further information is available at www.efirecode.com. If you need written confirmation permitting you to use the IG and test bank online, email me your request and I will confirm by letter.
